Plum

Product code: B-1904

Design: Max Kobiela

Plum is a collection of armchairs in which traditional nineteenth-century technology has been closed in a minimalist, contemporary form. A characteristic element of the collection is the bent structural frame, which also serves as legs, armrests and backrest. Bent of beech wood, it emphasizes craftsmanship and technological possibilities of steamed bent wood. The Plum collection consists of three versions: openwork, bucket and club. The Plum collection of the bucket version is distinguished by bent plywood, upholstered from the inside, which gives this collection great seating comfort.
